BLOOM COACH WORKSHOP

Hire your assistant.

Tuesday, 11 August 2026 · 10:00–12:00

By noon, three things are true.

- Your assistant knows your practice.

- It did real work for you today.

- Every weekday morning it writes you a brief.

- 1 Settings → Plugins → Add → Add marketplace

- 2 Type exactly radialreview/bloom-coach-kit

- 3 Install Bloom coach kit

- 4 Open a new session — choose your Documents folder

- 5 Type / — you should see meet-your-assistant

✓ When you see it, help your neighbor.

Type `/bloom-coach-kit:meet-your-assistant`

- 1 Six questions, about ten minutes

- 2 Question four is where they get good — spend your words there. Brief them like a new hire on day one.

- 3 Stuck on a name? Say so — it'll offer some

NEW SESSION · SAME FOLDER · YOU SPEAK FIRST

“good morning”

They speak second—the moment you say hello, you’ll see they already know you.

Say: “show me my owner’s manual”

- 1 Your assistant wrote it during setup — it lives in your folder
- 2 It’s for three weeks from now — what each specialist does, what to try, who to email
- 3 Never edit it yourself — ask your assistant to change it. That’s the rule for everything today.

You talk to one person. They run the team.

Meeting prep

ready before you ask

You never pick a specialist. Say what you need—your assistant figures out who does it.

1 + menu → connect Calendar — sign in in the browser, come back

2 Start a new conversation

3 Ask one, in your own words:

“What’s my week look like?”

“Draft a follow-up to your client about their Quarterly Priorities.”

- 1 Type `/bloom-coach-kit:set-up-my-morning` — two questions

- 2 It runs once while you watch — approve what it asks (standing permission, granted once)

- 3 It ends with a page — bookmark it — phones out is fine

- 4 That page rewrites itself every weekday morning _____ will _____ every _____.

one real thing · a real cadence · sign it

Name · sentence · pass.

Open floor 1:00–2:30

Bring anything broken, and anything you want your assistant to do.

- 1 Catching up? Stephanie's got you — raise a hand

- 2 Moving fast? Ask your assistant to “add a specialist”

- 3 1:45 — where this goes: Remote Control + Mike's daily deck

- 4 Or just work — we'll float

- Tomorrow, about 7:30—check your bookmark.
- Webinar two—your brief reaches your phone.
- In two weeks, you'll hear from me about your card.
